Conference Administrators and Regional Tennis Directors,

Good morning once again, we have lost power again unfortunately. The good news is that we were able to post the dual team brackets, those are up now. The regional entry portal is still down, but we will accept those entries from schools without a late penalty due to the outage.

Continue to advise your schools that they should continue to email me the dual team line-up sheets but school should share their sheets with one another in preparation for play on Wednesday. Remember that schools can mutually agree to play earlier if they wish.
