NCHSAC Championship Results

The North Carolina High School Athletic Conference served for many years as the athletic organization for historically black high schools. The NCHSAC conducted championships in several sports, and Dr. W.T. "Army" Armstrong of Rocky Mount served as commissioner for many years.

The NCHSAA has spent quite a bit of time and effort trying to research state champions and other facts about the Conference, although what had been uncovered was sketchy. Recently, though, we acquired some documents which Tim Brayboy, who worked for the state Department of Public Instruction before his retirement, had discovered, and it sheds terrific light on the organization. The organization was fairly loosely knit in the 1920's and '30's, basically consisting of 30 to 35 black high schools with no well defined or consistent plan for declaring championships in any sport.

In 1946, a meeting was held in Charlotte to discuss reorganization. Dr. Armstrong was asked to draw up a constitution with rules and regulations, suggest fees, and establish basic guidelines. There were 35 schools represented at that initial meeting. The organization actually used two different names during its time, including the North Carolina Negro High School Athletic Association and then the North Carolina High School Athletic Conference.

The conference's record membership was 215 high schools in 1959. That level stayed fairly consistent until the late 1960's, as integration began to take place. At its height, the Conference had approximately 90 football teams, 215 basketball teams, 75 in baseball, 30 in tennis and 40 in track.

In its last year of operation, in 1969, the NCHSAC was down to 48 schools, including 17 with football teams, all 48 with basketball, nine with baseball, four in tennis and five in track.

Any additions or correction to the championship list may be sent to James Alverson at the NCHSAA.

INDIAN HIGH SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

The Robeson Indian High School Athletic Conference began interscholastic participation in the 1920's. Original members of the conference were Fairmont, Green Grove, Magnolia, Pembroke, Piney Grove, Prospect and Union Chapel. Teams competed in several sports, but the post-season basketball tournament at Pembroke State was always a highlight of the year. With consolidation reducing the number of schools to four, the league added Hawkeye (Hoke County) and Les Maxwell (Cumberland in 1966 to become the Tri-County Indian High School Athletic Conference. Then in 1968 the schools joined the NCHSAA, just as the schools in the North Carolina High School Athletic Conference for black high schools did.

We are grateful to Tim Brayboy for this historical research.

2019 Women's Championship Retrospectives

1A Women: Pamlico County wins their first title 62-55 over East Surry

CHAPEL HILL – Jainaya Jones and the Pamlico County Hurricanes would not be denied in their third-straight trip to the State Basketball Championship Game, as Jones scored 39 points on her way to Kay Yow Most Valuable Player honors and a 62-55 victory over East Surry.

Pamlico trailed for the majority of the game, with East Surry holding the lead for the first three quarters. Elle Sutphin led the way for the Cardinals as the junior scored 13 points and grabbed 16 rebounds despite facing box-and-one and triangle-and-two defenses all day from the Hurricanes. Sutphin was named the Most Outstanding Performer for the Cardinals.

Dasia Lambert and Morgan Smith were the beneficiaries of the open shots created off the Hurricanes' double-teams of Sutphin. Lambert tossed in 15 points while Smith scored 11 on three of six from beyond the arc.

It was a 7-0 run by Pamlico County in the early portion of the fourth quarter that shoved the Hurricanes to the lead, 51-47 with 4:30 to go. Zion Davis and Jones combined for the seven-point swing, with Jones scoring a pair of layups consecutively, the final of the two she was fouled on and converted the three-point play.

East Surry stole the lead back briefly at the 2:58 mark as Grace Cook and then Dasia Lambert nailed pairs of free throws. However, the Hurricanes responded immediately with Jones hitting a three followed by Mirachell Maher tossing in a layup off a feed from Jones to go back up three 56-53. Maher finished the game with 14 points and 9 rebounds, on her way to being named Pamlico County's Most Outstanding Player.

2A Women: Mountain Heritage caps perfect season with 63-53 win over Farmville Central

RALEIGH – Mountain Heritage wrapped up a perfect season, returning to the State Championship Game for the first time since 1981, and holding off Farmville Central for a 63-53 victory and the school's first Women's Basketball Championship.

The two teams played a very even game in the first half, with Mountain Heritage winning both the first and second quarter by a single point to carry a two-point lead into the half. The third quarter was the decisive quarter, as after Farmville Central's Amiya Joyner's layup to open the second half scoring and tie the game at 32, Mountain Heritage went on a 15-0 run to open up a 47-32 advantage with 3:29 to play in the third.

Hannah Tipton had six of the 15 during the third quarter run for the Cougars, she finished the game with 29 points and five rebounds while chipping in a pair of assists and steals. Tipton was selected as the Kay Yow Most Valuable Player for the 2A Championship.

Hannah Ray was the only other player in double-figures for Mountain Heritage as she scored 12 with three rebounds, three steals and a pair of assists. Ray was chosen as the Most Outstanding Player for Mountain Heritage.

After falling behind by 15, Farmville Central made it interesting down the stretch, cutting the Cougars lead down to 5 with just 1:24 to play when Ja'Shyran Carmon hit a jump shot. However, that is as close as the Jaguars would come with Tipton and teammate Presley Peterson converting free throws down the stretch.

Amiya Joyner was one of three Jaguars in double-figures, scoring 15 points to lead the team. She also grabbed 14 of the team's 35 rebounds on her way to being named the Jaguars Most Outstanding Player. Jordan Joyner had 12 points and four rebounds for Farmville Central and Carmon added 11 and four rebounds.

Neither team led by more than eight at any point in the game during a game with six lead changes and two ties. Both teams held their largest leads during the third quarter as Southeast worked their way out to an eight-point lead with 7:24 to go in the quarter before Cuthbertson whittled that lead down and built a six point lead of their own with a 13-0 run capped off by Kayla Young's jumper at the 1:09 mark to put the Cavaliers up 39-33.

West Forsyth also got a great contribution from Destiny Griffin who added 13 points while snatching six rebounds. Griffin was named the Titans' Most Outstanding Player for the game. Shakira Baskerville also contributed for the Titans, grabbing 11 rebounds, nearly half of the team's total of 25.

Southeast Raleigh outrebounded West Forsyth 38-25, but only shot 29.8% from the floor for the game. They also gave up 12 turnovers which the Titans turned into 11 points, holding an 11-5 edge in points off turnovers in the game.

The Bulldogs were led by Anya Poole who scored 14 points while pulling down 10 rebounds for a double-double. Poole was named the Most Outstanding Player for Southeast Raleigh. Southeast Raleigh also got 12 points from Tamia Davis who added 3 assists in the game.

Southeast Raleigh finished the season 25-6. They were 11-1 as the champions of the Cap 7 4A Conference. The Bulldogs won the Eastern Regional title for the sixth year in program history.

West Forsyth wrapped up the year 26-3, 9-1 in the Central Piedmont 4A Conference where they were the champions. The Titans earned the program's second Western Regional Championship, the first since 2012. They won the Women's Basketball Championship for the first time in school history.

1A Men: Bishop McGuinness storms back to nip Henderson Collegiate 55-54

CHAPEL HILL – Henderson Collegiate sped out to a 14 point lead by mid-way through the second quarter, but it was Bishop McGuinness' consistent pressure and tenacity that whittled down the deficit and eventually brought home the school's second Men's Basketball Title with a 55-54 victory.

Andrew Budzinski scored 23 points for the Villains, grabbing seven rebounds during the comeback victory. Budzinski had 9 points and three boards in the final quarter alone, including making one of two foul shots with the game tied at 54 with just .7 seconds remaining to seal the victory for Bishop McGuinness. Budzinski was named the Charlie Adams Most Valuable Player of the 1A Championship for his efforts.

Cameron Caroway also played a huge role in the comeback effort, scoring 15 points and grabbing 10 rebounds with three steals as he helped lead the Villains from behind. Caroway was named the Most Outstanding Player for Bishop McGuinness.

Henderson Collegiate's pressure gave Bishop McGuinness problems all game, turning the Villains over 23 times. But the Villains 1-2-2 trapping zone gave the Pride difficulty in the final three quarters, forcing 15 turnovers and leading to some easy buckets, particularly in the late second quarter when Bishop McGuinness trimmed the lead back down to just three points at the halftime intermission.

Javonte Waverly led the Pride with 13 points and three rebounds. He was selected as the Most Outstanding Player in the game for Henderson Collegiate. Kameron Brooks had 11 first-half points with seven rebounds, but exited the game with an injury during the second quarter.

3A Men: Cox Mill escapes Northside 65-63 for second straight title

RALEIGH, N.C. – In a highly anticipated matchup of a pair of defending state champions, it was the defending 3A State Champions, Cox Mill, that held on to down last year's 2A State Champions, Northside-Jacksonville, by a narrow 65-63 margin.

The two teams played a very tight first half, with Cox Mill taking a slim 36-31 lead into the halftime break, but the Chargers came out firing in the third quarter, raising their lead to as many as 13 around the midway point of the third frame. As champions typically do, Northside-Jacksonville battled back, eventually drawing even with the Chargers on a three-point bomb by Gabe Kirkendoll, knotting the game at 63 all with just 19 seconds remaining.

Wendell Moore, Jr., last year's 3A Championship Game Most Valuable Player, stepped up to the line with seven seconds to go and knocked down two free throws to give the Chargers a 65-63 lead. Northside had one final push up the floor, and Levi Ramirez heaved a ball, that went in for three, but it was ruled he had stepped on the sideline before the shot, and the shot waived off with only a second remaining, sending Cox Mill to their second-straight State Championship.

Moore, Jr. struggled from the floor all game, as a stingy Monarch defense held him to just 3 of 13 from the floor. He was able to get to the foul line 19 times as he converted 17 of those free throws on the way to 24 points and Charlie Adams NCHSAA 3A Men's Basketball Championship Game Most Valuable Player honors for the second year in a row.

Caleb Stone-Carrawell was huge for the Chargers as well, scoring 18 points on 8-14 from the field, including a pair of three-pointers. Stone-Carrawell was named the Chargers' Most Outstanding Player. Rechon "Leaky" Black had 9 points in the game, but did pick up six steals, helping the Chargers win the turnover battle by a 22-11 margin.

Kenny Dye was the Most Outstanding Player for Northside-Jacksonville. The Monarchs guard scored a team-high 18 points and grabbed 6 rebounds. Two other Monarchs were in double-figures with Kirkendoll scoring 16 with 7 rebounds. Jason Robinson was also in double-figures, scoring 13 and coming up a rebound shy of a double-double with 9 boards.

4A Men: Independence climbs past Heritage 71-60 for second state championship in program history

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – The Independence Patriots returned to the 4A State Championship Game for the first time since 1997, when they knocked off Richmond County. The second trip to a State Final was a pretty similar picture as the Patriots played solid team basketball on their way to a 71-60 victory over Heritage.

The Patriots never trailed by more than two, which came in the opening minute of play as Huskies' senior guard Jarren McCallister got Heritage off to a 2-0 lead, but Independence closed the first frame on a 9-2 run, stretching their advantage out to 17-9 at the first quarter break.

Heritage played the Patriots closely, outscoring Independence 15-14 in the second quarter, as things settled into more of a half-court game, but Independence rattled off a pair of threes in the third, with Andra' McKee and Jordan Mobley connecting to stretch their lead to 13 heading into the fourth, and the Patriots never looked back.

Jayden Gardner kept Heritage in the game the whole way, as the senior committed to East Carolina worked hard in the paint. Gardner scored a game-high 30 points and snatched 13 rebounds, converting 10 of his 11 foul shots. He was named Heritage's Most Outstanding Player.

Jamarius Burton played a huge role in both the offensive scoring and on the glass for the Patriots. Burton scored 13 on the night, grabbing seven rebounds while dishing out three assists on his way to being named the Charlie Adams 4A Men's Basketball Championship Game's Most Valuable Player. Andra' McKee had a team-high 20 points and grabbed three rebounds as he was named Independence's Most Outstanding Player.

Northern Guilford got a run-out lay in from Kassie Robakewicz to extend the lead back to four before Neal would trim the lead back to two with a pair of free throws with nine seconds to play at 65-63.

Northern Guilford's Kelly Lomax converted one of her two free throws with eight seconds to play and when Hickory Ridge's Nia Daniel was fouled with two seconds to play, she hit the first free throw to trim the Nighthawk lead to two at 66-64. Daniel intentionally missed the second free throw and the Lady Bulls grabbed the rebound but Sydney Miller could not get a shot off as she was stripped by Northern Guilford's Janelle Henderson to seal the victory and hand the Lady Bulls their first loss of the season.

Robakewicz finished in double figures with 14 points and four rebounds to go with a pair of assists. Mercedes Wampler was also in double figures with 10 points, a pair of assists and two steals.

Northern Guilford finished the season 31-1, champions of the Mid-State 3A Conference where they were 16-0. The Nighthawks won the Eastern Regional for the second straight year and claimed their first State Championship in Women's Basketball.

4A Women: NW Guilford fights past SE Raleigh 36-34 to win school's first WBB State Championship

RALEIGH, N.C. – Northwest Guilford is used to close scoring big games, and the experience paid off as the Vikings held off Southeast Raleigh for a hard-fought 36-34 victory. The win was the first state championship victory for the Vikings Women's Basketball program.

Tamia Davis had a stick-back two with 13 seconds remaining to draw Southeast Raleigh within two late, but the Bulldogs couldn't get the bucket to tie or take the lead on the final possession as a shot from Tamia Hicks fell short at the final horn.

The two teams battled hard defensively, as Southeast Raleigh outscored Northwest 14-9 in the second quarter to take a five-point lead. Northwest flipped the script in the third, as the Vikings knotted the score up headed to the final frame by outscoring the Bulldogs 9-4 in the third.

Sophomore Elizabeth Kitley had a double-double with 15 points and ten rebounds helping her to be named the Kay Yow Most Valuable Player of the game. Her ten rebounds helped give Northwest a 35-30 advantage on the glass.

Cayla King was named Northwest Guilford's Most Outstanding Player and was the only other Viking in double figures with 16 points. She was 11 of 12 from the free throw line and had seven rebounds to go with three assists and two steals.

Southeast Raleigh was led by Tamia Hicks who scored 13 points to lead the Bulldogs while grabbing four rebounds and blocking three shots. Hicks was named the Bulldogs Most Outstanding Player. Jada McMillian was the only other Southeast Raleigh player in double digits with 12 points on the day.

Northwest Guilford finished the season 30-2 on the year, winners of the Piedmont Triad 4A Conference where they were a perfect 10-0. The Vikings won the Western Regional final for the second straight year and grabbed their first state championship in Women's Basketball with the victory.

Despite the trials of dealing with overlapping volleyball and basketball seasons, the Princeton Bulldogs won their third straight conference championship this season. Princeton had seven players that were key pieces of the school's volleyball program as well, but navigated the difficulties of multiple practices and game days with a spotless 16-0 record.

Coach Wooten notes that a big piece of this year's team success has been learning to play with one another. The Bulldogs feature a powerful trio of scorers, Meredith Wooten, Anna Taylor and Le'Onna Nelson. Taylor leads the team in scoring with 20.4 ppg, Wooten right on her heels with 19.4 ppg. Nelson is chipping in 10.2 ppg while ripping down 6.6 rebounds per contest.

Princeton returns to the NCHSAA State Championship Game for the fourth time and the first time since 1986. They are seeking the program's first title.

The Murphy Bulldogs have had an incredible season, returning to the NCHSAA State Title game after the COVID-19 cancellation a year ago and their Co-Championship, which they shared with Weldon. This year marks the Bulldogs fourth straight trip to the Regional Final Round. The Bulldogs avenged their lone two losses of the season in the third round of this year's playoffs, knocking off conference rival Robbinsville 49-37.

Murphy set a new NCHSAA State Record for the most three point field goals in a game, hitting 24 threes in a win over Nantahala. The Bulldogs have won 126 games of the past five seasons and are led by the most prolific scorer in WNC this year, Torin Rogers. Murphy is in their fifth all-time NCHSAA Championship Game and are seeking the program's fourth title.

Farmville Central returns to the State Championship for the third year in a row, coming off of their Co-Championship with Newton-Conover during the 2020 COVID-interrupted playoffs. The Jaguars are seeking the school's third State title in WBB.

The Jaguars return a veteran group that fell 10 points short of a title in 2019, prior to missing an opportunity to play in the actual Championship Game a year ago. The narrow misses have only fueled their fire for this year. The luck, or lack of it, the draw put them on the road for the majority of the playoffs this year. However, the Jaguars got a home game against conference rivals, North Pitt, handling their rivals for the third time this season and picking up a 78-57 victory.

Farmville Central starts four players with three years of All-Conference Honors. A'miya Joyner, Jahnyah Willoughby, Janiya Foskey and Jordan Joyner have all racked up the honors during their careers.

Coach Scooter Lawrence described this season as the beginning of something special. Unbeaten on the year during a particularly challenging year is certainly quite an accomplishment. The Golden Lions grabbed their second straight Conference Championship and won the program's first Regional Title to make their way to an NCHSAA State Championship Game for the first time.

A pair of sophomores lead the way for Shelby. Mara-ja Pass and Ally Hollifield are both averaging more than 20 points per game for Shelby, with junior Kate Hollifield adding 13.1 ppg. While there is plenty of star power on this year's Golden Lions club, it was an unlikely hero that helped push Shelby through the third round. Sophomore Brooke Hartgrove drained six three-pointers in the 64-53 win over Mountain Heritage, despite averaging just over six points per game.

Diamond McDowell is leading the team, averaging 20.4 ppg and ripping off 11.9 rebounds per contest. She has scored 20 or more in nine games this year. McDowell gets plenty of help from fellow senior Tanaesha Ellison who is averaging 15.2 points per game.

Freshman Sion Murrain has been a big help for the Blue Comets this year, coming on the scene to average 9.9 ppg and pick up 8.2 rebounds per outing. Murrain was instrumental in the third round win over Eastern Alamance, scoring a season-high 19 points and grabbing 9 rebounds in the 59-56 win.

The Carson senior class boasts 95 wins during their four-year careers and are credited by their coach as being the heart of the team. They have led the team to four straight North Piedmont 3A Conference Championships. The Cougars avenged a third round loss a season ago against Enka in the third round this year, slipping by the Jets 64-56 on the road.

Carson has four players averaging double-figures on the year, led by senior Carleigh Perry who boasts 14.9 ppg. Mary Spry, a junior, averages 12.6 ppg, though she is dealing with an injury and could be a key missing piece for the Cougars on Saturday if she cannot play. The team's 17-0 season is the longest winning streak in school history.

This is the first appearance in an NCHSAA State Championship Game for the Cougars after the program's first Regional Championship.

Garner returns to the NCHSAA State Championship Game for the first time since back-to-back appearances in 1978 and 1979. They are looking for their second state title. The Trojans have gone through the majority of their schedule with out really many close games, but in the second round of the playoffs, Heritage played the Trojans close as Garner managed to squeak by with a 53-52 win. Coach Stigler called that game a "wake-up call" for him and his team.

Stigler credited his players maturity, willingness to share the spotlight and accepting a "team over me" mentality as the keys to success this year. Junior Jerni Kiaku has starred all season, dishing out 4.8 assists per game while scoring 26.1 ppg. She has come to play when it mattered most, with a pair of 30+ point games in the playoffs, including a 38 point outburst in the Regional Finals against Ashley.

After a nearly month long pause for COVID by decision of Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, Vance stormed through the remaining portion of their schedule with the same ferocity that they started with. The Cougars are perfect on the year, returning to the State Championship game for the third time in program history and second straight year. Vance shared last year's COVID-affected title with Southeast Raleigh, but the Cougars are back with a veteran team.

Vance starts four seniors, led by Amhyia Moreland, a four-year varsity starter, three-year I-Meck All-Conference performer and this year's I-Meck Player of the Year. Moreland has scored 18.9 ppg and grabbed 6.9 rebounds per game. She is helped by Leia Barringer and Tanajah Hayes, a pair of fellow seniors, averaging 13.4 and 12.6 ppg, respectively.

The team is averaging a remarkable 74% from the field and 69% from three-point territory, making for a very efficient offense. A stingy defensive team, the Cougars are allowing just 42.8 ppg and have held opponents under 40 in five of 11 games.

COVID-19 truly took a toll on the Tigers 2021 season. The Tigers first three scheduled games of the year were cancelled due to the virus, then the team was hit with the virus and a quarantine of their own. Wilson Prep only managed to complete four games in the regular season, beating the only other team in their conference that participated this year, North Edgecombe, twice to win the conference title.

Coach Atkinson credits his team's mental toughness with getting through what has been a most challenging season. His Tiger team has four players averaging double-figures this season. They are led by senior Nasiar Blackson who is averaging 15.3 ppg and grabbing 6.4 rebounds per contest.

Joining him in the scoring for Wilson Prep are fellow seniors Devyn Bullock and Eric Wynn who are scoring 11.6 and 10.5 ppg, respectively. Junior Christen Battle is the lone underclassman in double-figures for the season, scoring 10.9 per game.

This game marks the first NCHSAA State Championship appearance from a team at Wilson Prep in any team sport.

Lincoln Charter is back to the State Championship Game for the second time in program history and the first time since taking the 2017 1A Championship over Kestrel Heights 97-75. The Eagles won the Southern Piedmont 1A for the eighth consecutive year.

This year has been particularly challenging as the team lost Assistant Coach Jamie Seitz, who passed away just prior to the start of the season. The players have dedicated this season in his honor and Coach Bradley Gabriel credits that dedication to helping the team remain as a very close-knit unity throughout the year.

Junior Sam Cogan leads the team in scoring, averaging 19.8 ppg and 8 rebounds. Cogan is the SPC Player of the Year and All-Conference honoree each of his three seasons. Troy Fulton, Marcus Farley and Carter Seitz also average double-figures for the well-balanced Eagle attack.

Farmville Central makes their way to the NCHSAA title game for the third straight season, having won the last two championships, including last year's co-championship with Shelby. This year's edition of the Jaguars looks for the program's seventh State Championship in eight appearances.

Bad luck in the draw for seeding put the Jaguars at the nine spot, sending them on the road all the way through the Regional Final when they were able to host Northeastern and put up a Regional Tournament record 113 points at home. The Jaguars have had their share of adversity to overcome this year, including a COVID quarantine and the cancellation of the team's senior night.

Terquavion Smith is a dynamic player, committed to play at NC State next year. He leads Farmville Central with 25.6 points per game and explosive playmaking ability. Sophomore Jah Short is the only other player averaging double-figures for the team, pouring in 13 ppg.

Hendersonville won their conference tournament for the fourth year in a row and boasts a good core of senior and veteran leaders around some extremely talented younger players. The Bearcats have had an exceptional year despite playing without a "home" gym, playing all their games and holding all their practices in various gyms across the county while their home is being renovated.

Sophomore Keenan Wilkins leads the team in scoring with 23.5 ppg. Junior Dwight Canady is right on his heels with 21.8 ppg. The dynamic duo are bolstered by a trio of seniors, Carson Redden, Alex Lemmens and Joel Christner who each average more than 5 ppg and rebound well.

The Bearcats make the program's 10th appearance all-time in a State Championship Game, dating back to 1948, and are on the hunt for their seventh title.

Coach Matt Brown highlights exceptional leadership during an offseason of separation with the Northwood success this year. The team was not allowed to meet in-person due to COVID-19, but each player committed to working individually and met via Zoom to watch film and improve.

The team has battled through two early season losses at the buzzer, bringing them closer together and highlighting areas of improvement. The drive from those losses has pushed the Chargers to the State Championship Game for the fourth time in school history, and if they are victorious, the first State Championship in program history.

A trio of freshmen, Jarin Stevenson, Drake Powel and Frederico Whitaker lead the team in scoring, averaging 13.7, 11.4 and 9.7 ppg, respectively. Stevenson is also leading the team in rebounding with 8.1 per contest.

Weddington is in the State Championship Game for the first time in program history after muscling their way through an undefeated season for the first time in school history to a Southern Carolina 3A title. Coach Ellington described an uncommon level of focus and commitment for his players this year, despite all the potential distractions from a pandemic.

The team did have to tackle a 14-day quarantine during the year, but despite that, won six games in 10 days to finish the year. The Warriors are led by two-time conference player of the year Chase Lowe and boast four all-conference selections. Lowe is averaging 14.5 ppg and grabbing a team high 7.2 rebounds each game. Junior AJ Cook has distinguished himself as well, putting up 14.1 ppg.

After a disappointing exit in the Regional Finals in 2019, Millbrook returns to the State Championship for the first time since the school's only Men's Basketball Title Game appearance in 2011 when the Wildcats fell to West Charlotte 78-69. All five starters are averaging 11+ ppg for the 2021 Wildcats, including four players with more than 3.5 assists per game. What has separated Millbrook has been its ability to defend. The team has allowed less than 50 points in 9 games this season, and Fuquay-Varina's 82 points in the second round was the only time that an opponent had eclipsed 70 points in a contest.

The Wildcat road to the finals has been an eventful one, replete with the team's first overtime win in more than a decade. They knocked out previously unbeaten Apex Friendship 68-66 in overtime of the third round thanks to a 6-0 run to close the game and two game-winning FT by Silas Demary Jr. with 32.5 seconds to go. The Regional Finals was not without its own set of drama, as the Wildcats held off Lumberton 79-77, also in overtime.

After enduring a 24-day pause due to COVID-19 and Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools decision to suspend athletics, Ardrey Kell returned to the court and ripped off seven huge wins to vault the team into the State Championship Game for the second time in school history. The only other previous appearance for the Knights game in 2015 when they were held off by Garner 70-64 at the Smith Center despite an NCHSAA State Championship Game Record 44 points from Steven Santa Ana.

Junior Elijah Gray is a player to keep an eye on for Ardrey Kell as he has seven mid-major offers and is averaging 15.4 ppg with 7.4 rebounds a contest, both second on the team. Gray teams with seniors Knoah Carver and Peyton Gerald to round out a very balanced attack that seems to have a knack for winning close games. Carver is averaging a team-best 15.9 ppg while Gerald chips in 13.5 ppg and a team-leading 7.8 rebounds per outing.
