Match Previews

4A Women's Championship

Charlotte Catholic and Cardinal Gibbons women's lacrosse programs are no strangers to each other as they have met in four previous NCHSAA Championship Matches (2018, 2019, 2022 and 2023). Gibbons has won each of those contests. The two teams also played a nonconference match against each other this season on April 13 and Gibbons won that meeting 16-7. Catholic enters the championship game with a 19-7 overall record and a current winning streak of eight games. Gibbons is 19-4 on the year and has won 15 straight contests since they fell to Our Lady of Good Counsel (Md.) back in March. The two teams have two common opponents from this year as they both lost to St. Anne's-Belfield (Va.) and they both beat Charlotte Latin.

4A Men's Championship

Lake Norman is returning to the Championship Match for the first time since 2018 after appearing in five out of seven from 2012-2018, but 2024 will mark the debut for the Green Level Gators. The 2024 Championship Match will be a rematch of an early season nonconference match, Green Level won that contest 8-7 back on March 9. The Gators and Wildcats also have three common opponents this year: the Gators beat Cardinal Gibbons twice while the Wildcats lost to them 7-6, Lake Norman beat Middle Creek 13-2 and the Gators took two of three games with them, both teams lost to Cannon in April. The Gators enter the championship game 21-2 while the Wildcats are 18-5.

1A/2A/3A Women's Championship

Bishop McGuinness returns to the Championship Match after falling to Croatan last year in the first 1A/2A/3A Women's Lacrosse Championship. Union Pine is making its first appearance in the championship. Union Pines heads to the final game of the season undefeated at 17-0 and Bishop McGuinness is 19-2 with losses to West Forsyth and Forsyth Country Day in April. The Villains are currently on a six-game winning streak. The two teams did not play this year and do not have any common opponents. Ella Suire leads the Villains with 75 goals this season and Ellie Powell leads the Vikings with 74.

1A/2A/3A Men's Championship

Lake Norman Charter is back in the Championship Match for the third year in a row and the Knights are looking to stay undefeated in the title game. The Orange Panthers will make their debut in the title game on Saturday. Orange is 24-1 on the year and riding a 14-game winning streak. Their only loss of the season came on April 4 to Holly Springs 15-7. The Knights are 14-7 this season but lost two of their final three games to Charlotte Catholic and Lake Norman. The Knights and Panthers have not played this season and do not share any common opponents. Both teams feature prolific scorers as Connor Kruse leads the Orange with 72 goals this year and Tyler Price has 66 for the Knights.

2023 North Carolina High School Athletic Association Lacrosse Championships

2023 1A/2A/3A WOMEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP

DURHAM – The Croatan Cougars (19-2) topped the Bishop McGuinness Villains 10-7 in the first-ever NCHSAA 1A/2A/3A Women's Lacrosse Championship. The NCHSAA first sanctioned lacrosse playoffs in 2010 but held just one women's championship for all classifications until 2023.

Bishop McGuinness (16-4) struck first when Kathleen Dennen found the net just over a minute into the game but the Cougars were quick to counter as junior Lauren Hayden scored less than two minutes later.

The Villains edged in front with back-to-back goals from Ella Frances Suire and Sarah Pulliam to take a 3-1 lead at the 20-minute mark of the first half. Croatan responded with two 4-0 runs that made the difference in the game.

Croatan senior Kate Wilson started the first run with a goal at 19:44 with an assist from Hayden. Hayden assisted both Maddie Sutton and Olivia Caulder and scored another on her own to give the East Regional Champions a 5-3 lead.

Back-to-back Bishop McGuinness goals from Dennen leveled the score but Croatan's Wilson and Hayden took over the game from there. They each added one more goal before the intermission and one more afterward before the Villains found the net again.

Suire and Allison Varner scored for the Villains in the second half and Wilson added one more insurance goal for the Cougars with 13 minutes to play.

Hayden's four-goal and four-assist performance earned her MVP honors.

The NCHSAA is committed to recognizing and promoting good sportsmanship and has partnered with the NC Farm Bureau to honor two student-athletes at each of this year's championships with Sportsmanship Awards for excellence throughout the season. The 1A/2A/3A Lacrosse Sportsmanship Award winners were Samantha Hall from Croatan and Anna Hoeing from Bishop McGuinness.

2023 1A/2A/3A MEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP

DURHAM – With a 19-8 win on Saturday afternoon at Durham County Memorial Stadium, the Lake Norman Charter Knights won their second consecutive NCHSAA 1A/2A/3A Men's Lacrosse Championship.

The Northwood Chargers made their first title game appearance on Saturday and ended the 2023 campaign with a record of 18-4.

MVP Jack Dalton came out of the gates hot and scored the first three goals of the game. The Knights ultimately opened the game on a 7-0 run to take control of the game. Senior Jack Rombough added two goals in the period and juniors Brady Kester and Riley Cerosky each pitched in one. Northwood's Taylor Laberge ended the run with a goal in final minute of the first period.

The Knights kept the accelerator on the floor through the next two periods as they outscored the Chargers 10-4 in the second and third quarters. Dalton finished the game with five goals and two assists. Tyler Price, Rombough and Kester each added a hattrick for Lake Norman Charter. Price and Luke Thompson also recorded a pair of assists.

For the Chargers, Laberge tallied three goals and Will Smith scored twice and assisted on three more. Carson Fortunes also scored a pair of goals.

The NCHSAA is committed to recognizing and promoting good sportsmanship and has partnered with the NC Farm Bureau to honor two student-athletes at each of this year's championships with Sportsmanship Awards for excellence throughout the season. The 1A/2A/3A Lacrosse Sportsmanship Award winners were Will Johnson from Northwood and Jack Dudan from Lake Norman Charter.

2023 North Carolina High School Athletic Association Lacrosse Championships

2023 4A WOMEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP

DURHAM – The Cardinal Gibbons Crusaders (21-2) won their sixth North Carolina High School Athletic Association Women's Lacrosse State Championship on Friday evening with a 15-11 win against Charlotte Catholic.

The Crusaders struck first thanks to goals from Gracie Mullahy and Hayden Miller in the first five minutes to take a quick 2-0 lead. Cardinal Gibbons maintained a lead throughout the first half and pulled in front by four at the break with the help of goals from junior Isabelle Hammond and sophomore Ella Grimes in the last minute.

Charlotte Catholic (17-4) came out energized after the intermission and rattled off four quick goals to tie the score at 10-10. Junior Kate Daniels, who finished the game with a game-high six goals, scored three of the four in that second-half spurt and Barbara Tucker added the other.

Cardinal Gibbons halted the Cougars' momentum with 13:50 left in the game when Hammond scored her fourth goal and gave her team the 11-10 lead. Hammond was named MVP of the game for her efforts on the night. That goal sparked the Crusaders to go on a run of their own and that stretch made the difference for the eventual champions. Charlotte Jackson scored with 10:28 left and Rocky Phelps added a pair to push the lead back to four.

Junior MC Farley pulled the Cougars back within three with just under five minutes to play but the Crusaders managed the clock and added a final goal from Gracie Mullahy to put a bow on the win.

Charlotte Catholic will end the 2023 season with its sixth Runner-Up finish.

The NCHSAA is committed to recognizing and promoting good sportsmanship and has partnered with the NC Farm Bureau to honor two student-athletes at each of this year's championships with Sportsmanship Awards for excellence throughout the season. The 4A Lacrosse Sportsmanship Award winners were Grace Mullahy from Cardinal Gibbons and Morgan Hernandez from Charlotte Catholic.

2023 4A MEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP

DURHAM – The Cardinal Gibbons Crusaders men's lacrosse team followed the example set by their women's team counterparts earlier in the day and held off the Charlotte Catholic Cougars to win the with a 12-10 win on Friday night at Durham County Memorial Stadium.

With the 2023 title, the Crusaders have six championships since the NCHSAA first sanctioned lacrosse playoffs 12 years ago. Charlotte Catholic has now finished as runner-up twice.

Senior Ollie Evans opened the scoring with an unassisted goal two and a half minutes into the game. Senior Ayden Turner added the second goal half a minute later, and the Crusaders never looked back as they never relinquished the lead. Evans added another goal later in the first, and Junior Holden Manuel also scored in the period to take a 4-3 lead into the second.

Turner caught fire in the second, scoring three goals and helping to push the Crusaders to an 8-4 lead at the half. Turner was the offensive catalyst for the Crusaders as he ended the night with four goals and an assist. Cardinal Gibbons only scored three goals in the second half, but that proved to be more than enough to secure the win. The Crusaders were also stronger on faceoffs in the second half, winning seven of 11 after the break compared to just five of 13 in the first half.

For Charlotte Catholic, juniors Jack Ransom and Colin Mendicino each recorded second-half hattricks as the Cougars attempted the comeback. Mendicino found the net four times in the game and added an assist.

The Crusaders' defense held firm down the stretch and did not allow a goal in the final six minutes of the game. For his efforts in goal, junior Chris Schwartz was named MVP of the title game. Schwartz finished the night with eight saves.

The NCHSAA is committed to recognizing and promoting good sportsmanship and has partnered with the NC Farm Bureau to honor two student-athletes at each of this year's championships with Sportsmanship Awards for excellence throughout the season. The 4A Lacrosse Sportsmanship Award winners were Thomas Maken from Cardinal Gibbons and John Macuga from Charlotte Catholic.
